FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Perry's Steakhouse & Grille donates more than $80,000 to Houston Food Bank through 2019 Houston Restaurant Weeks

Perry's provides 241,206 meals in the fight to end hunger

HOUSTON (Sept. 12, 2019) – Perry's Steakhouse & Grille is proud to announce that, as a result of Houston Restaurant Weeks, all seven, Houston-area locations donated a total of $80,402 to the Houston Food Bank in the fight to end hunger.

Between Aug. 1, 2019 and Sept. 2, 2019, Perry's Steakhouse locations in Baybrook, Champions, Katy, Memorial City, River Oaks, Sugar Land and The Woodlands donated $7 of each $45 meal to the food bank resulting in a grand total of 241,206 meals provided for America's largest food bank.

"We look forward to Houston Restaurant Weeks every year as it's a great opportunity to support a worthy cause," said Chris Perry, president and owner of Perry's Restaurants. "Our team at Perry's has participated for the past eleven years, and we look forward to continuing to support the Houston Food Bank in the years to come."

Perry's Steakhouse & Grille is one of the longest-participating restaurants of Houston Restaurant Weeks, serving and donating more than $700,000 to this initiative for more than a decade. The annual series of events is in recognition and celebration of the city's vibrant restaurant scene while simultaneously fundraising for a local nonprofit helping feed those in need.
